

News from SALEM COUNTY Office of Public Information

---

Dr. Robin B. Weinstein, Public Information Officer
Office Phone: (856) 935-7510 ext. 8202
After Hours: (856) 297-5433

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: August 18, 2011

FAYE DEEL OF CARNEYS POINT DISCOVERS THE POSSIBILITIES AT SALEM COUNTY FAIR

(SALEM, NJ)—“Discover the Possibilities in Salem County” was the theme of the County’s booth at the Salem County Fair this year. Ms. Faye Deel of Carneys Point was the winner of three baskets full of Salem County Business products and services.

“I was so pleased to be the one to pull out Ms. Deel’s winning entry”, said Freeholder Bruce Bobbitt. “She was ecstatic.”

The prizes were provided by over 30 local businesses for a prize drawing, including A World Apart, LLC, Al & Sam’s Canoe, Boats and Kayak, Appel Farm Arts and Music Center, ARC of Salem County Thrift Store, Auburn Road Vineyard, Barrett’s Plantation House Bed & Breakfast, Cowtown Rodeo, Creekside Inn, Diana’s Leather Shoppe, DiBella’s Farm Market, Donna’s Hallmark, Elder’s HVAC, Fast Teks, Franklin Bank, Graham’s Jersey Farm Market, Heart Felt Designs Country Shop, Helen’s Cafe & Gardens, Klayhorse Studio, Pointe Buick-GMC, Radio Shack, ReStore Habitat For Humanity, Salem City Cafe, Salon Nicole, Sweet Mary’s Chocolates, Sweet Tomatoes Cafe, Table Scrap Creations, Taylor’s Gifts, Today’s Sunbeam, Town and Country Golf Links, Woodstown Massage Boutique, and Zane’s Western Apparel.

“The prizes represented the diversity of businesses and products available here in Salem County,” said Rebecca Gower-Call, chair of the Tourism Advisory Council, “All you needed to do to enter was to complete a brief survey and you didn’t have to be present at the drawing to win.”

For information, contact the Salem County Department of Public Information and Tourism at (856) 935-7510 x 8532; 877-658-6871 (toll-free) or info@visitsalemcountynj.com.